Dedication

Although your concern for our happiness and success may have seemed to pass unnoticed in the bustle of our daily activities, your continuous devotion and contributions to our educational system will be remembered as a significant element in the development of our future lives since we first entered Bristol High School in 1970.

It is in your unselfish giving and genuine interest that the Class of 1975 is honored to make their dedication to Dr. Edward P. Travers as a testimony of our appreciation.

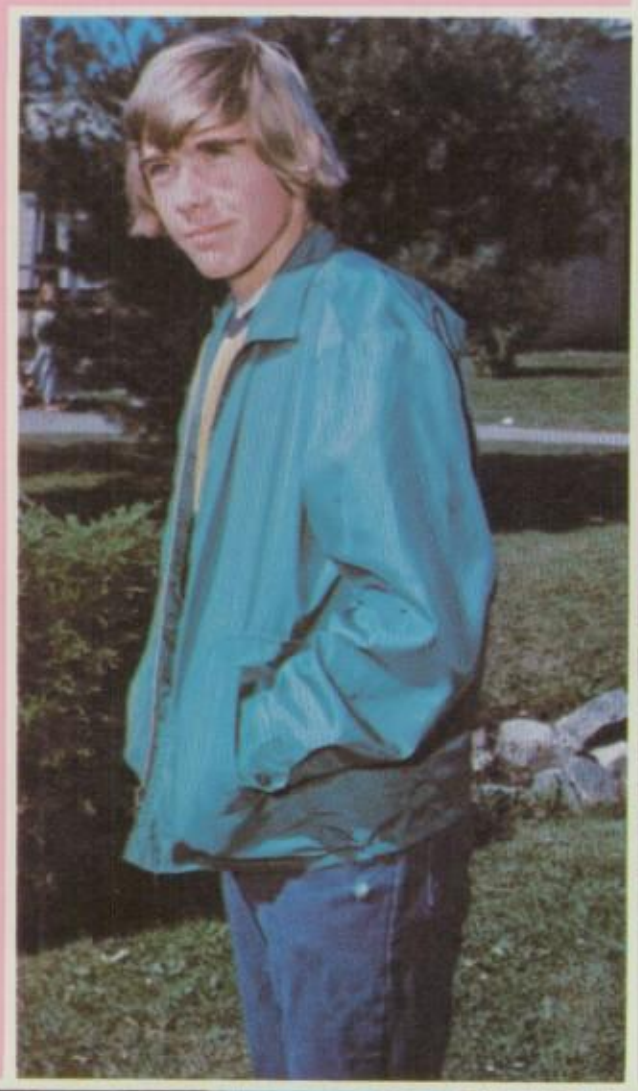
sometimes, not often enough, we reflect upon the good things



and those thoughts always center around those we love and i think about those people who mean so much to me

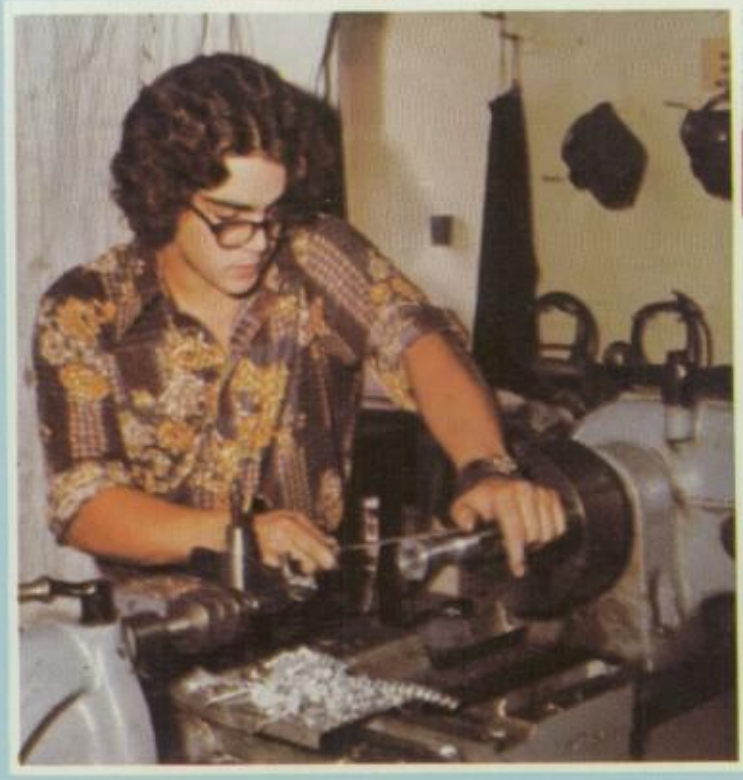
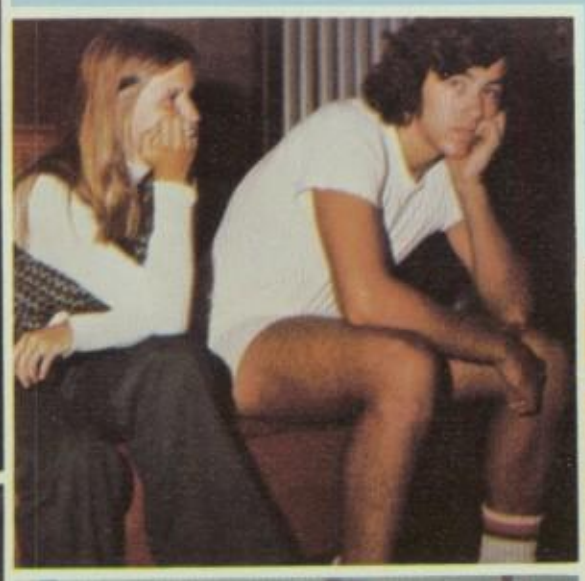
and for so many years have made me so very happy

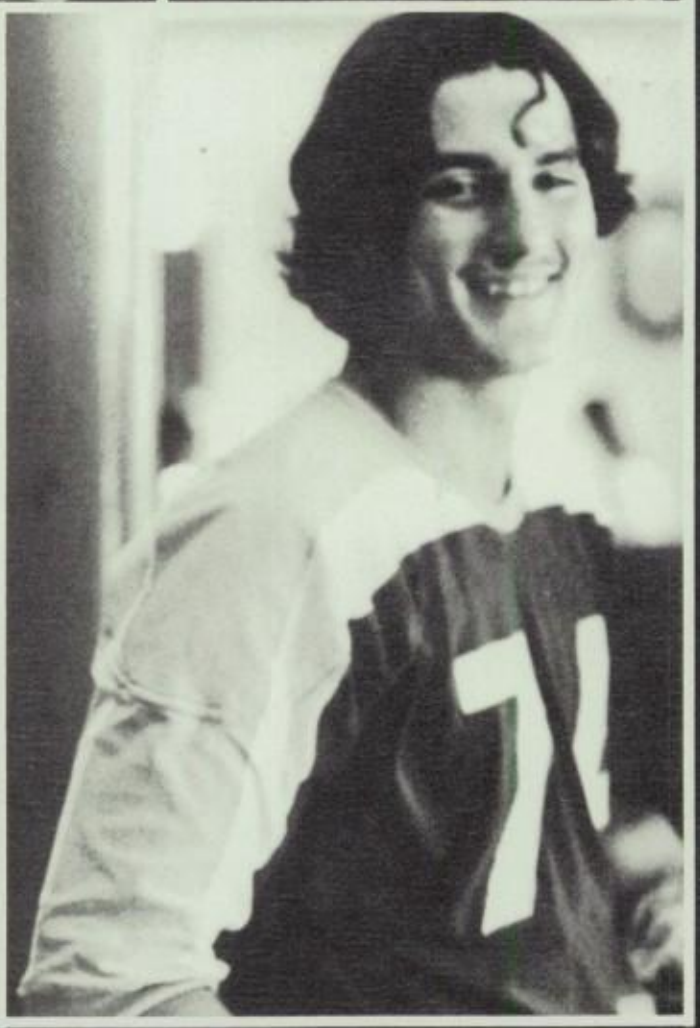


and i count the times i have forgotten to say:



thank you

and just how much i love them



The Class of 1975 commends Mr. Russo and Mr. Capone for their many years of dedicated service to the students of the Bristol School System and presents to them this page in appreciation. We wish you health and happiness in your retiring years.

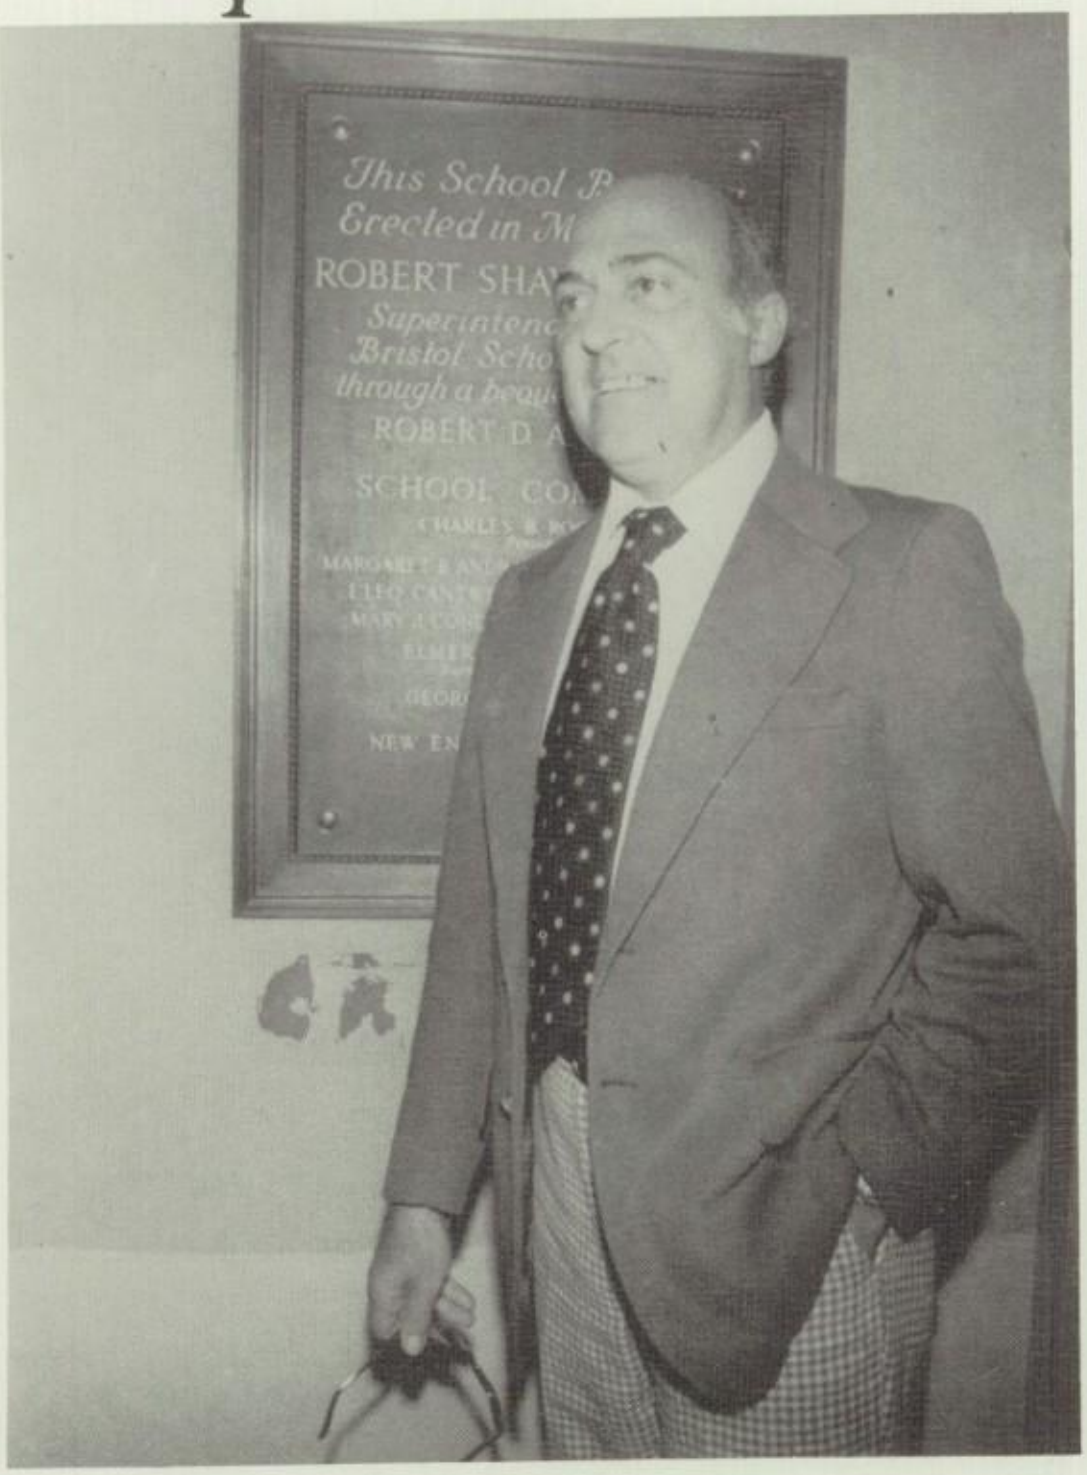
Administration and Faculty

Superintendent



To the members of the Class of 1975, Bristol High School, I am most pleased to have this opportunity to extend my congratulations to you on the occasion of your graduation. You have completed the prescribed requirements of a formal education as determined by elected officials and administered by school personnel.

The days ahead will have many happy memories of your years at Bristol High. I urge you to use the training and knowledge you obtained to further your future life experiences and to help others in need.

You have a place and a purpose in this world. Find it and fulfill it with a humanistic approach toward your fellowman. Be sure that your attitude in your day-to-day tasks is one which illustrates an understanding with a positive approach to problem-solving and is one that contains a flavor of happiness.

May God bless you with many good years of health and a full life of satisfaction and enjoyment.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

To the Class of 1975:

You are the first class to graduate since the terrible incident of Watergate, in all its ugliness, was exposed to the general public.

You have had occasion to see many men, serving in high positions of responsibility in our government, misuse their authority and some branches of our government in order to achieve power and in some cases monetary rewards.

Your generation will be faced with the tremendous challenge of restoring the faith and confidence of the American people in our system of government. You will also be faced with the challenge of re-establishing America's credibility among the peoples of the world.

I pray and hope that the education you have received in the Public Schools of Bristol has properly prepared you to meet and overcome these tremendous challenges.

I wish each of you best wishes in whatever endeavor you select to be your life's work.

Ennis J. Bisbano

Principal

Mr. Anthony P. Iasiello

To the Class of "75"

It is our hope that the experiences that we have provided and that the rewards of your attainment be measured in service to self, community and to mankind. May your journey through life be replete with happiness and success.

My best wishes to all of you.

Assistant Principal

To the Class of "75"

To each of you in the Class of 1975 — I hope that your experience at Bristol High School has been fruitful. May this successful completion be the key to all your future endeavors.

Mr. Ilidio Contente

Dean Of Students

To the Class of "75"

Congratulations to you, the Class of 1975. I have enjoyed working with you this past year and am very pleased and thankful for your cooperation and many kindnesses.

I sincerely hope that the years ahead will continue to bring you success and happiness, and the fulfillment of your dreams and goals.

Good luck! May God always be with you.

Mr. Frank J. Campagna

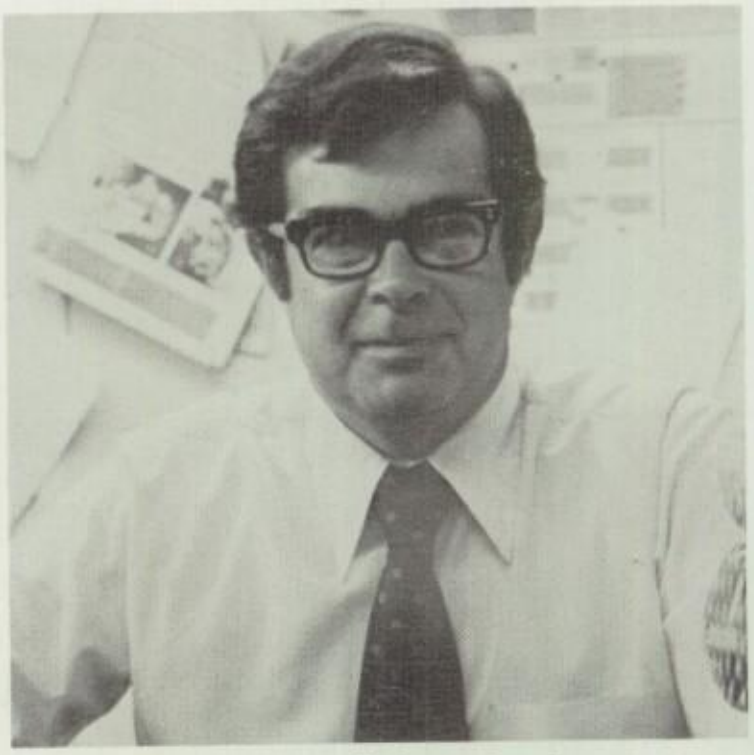
Director of Special Education

To the Class of "75"

Anyone seeking a motto for his desk or to hang over his bookcase might do well to adopt "I AM STILL LEARNING." The fact that a person has noticed that he does not know everything shows that he is intelligent.

Bear in mind that the more you get to know, the more likely you are to derive pleasure that will add to your life happiness. As young people, you should never lose your URGE TO LEARN — remembering always that knowledge is power.

Anthony E. Agatiello



Director of Curriculum

To the Class of "75"

The school experience has attempted to provide you with skills for better living. It has attempted to influence in a positive way, values for life and your style of life. The process will not end with your graduation. Continue to learn, question and clarify values. The effectiveness with which you deal with information about yourself and your environments will determine, in large measure, your success in coping with the future.

Louis T. Sylvia

Director of Audio-Visual

To the Class of "75"

Most people know that we are living in a new era in terms of communication, transportation, sources of power, technology, and many other scientific advances in a period of potential abundance for all. But this potential cannot be realized for many people because of antiquated methods, operations and support of education and the reliance on traditional teaching and learning procedures. But only informed citizens and enlightened leaders can bring about the changes that are needed. We look to you — the youth of the country — to get involved constructively and to become the future leaders to improve the potentials of America. I wish you good luck, good health and success in your future endeavors.

Matthew A. Capone

To the Class of "75"

I sincerely wish to all the graduating Seniors best wishes for continual success in a world full of challenges, hope and love for all mankind.

Class History

In September, 1970, we were as young explorers with unknown goals, stumbling through dark, silent corridors. Too late, until this very moment perhaps, did we fully realize the extent of its meaning.

During the year that followed, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Anthony, we saw that there was much to learn. By our Freshman year, however, we exhibited great potential and our efforts brought us a first place victory in the Homecoming float competition, the first Freshman class ever to obtain this honor. We continued diligently with an intense desire to unite ourselves as a class and on December 20, 1971, we had prepared a Christmas Program which was presented at Benjamen Church Manor. Three days later we co-sponsored a successful Christmas Mixer. Funds from three cake sales, a car wash, and our Freshman publication, "Mixed Vegetables," were used to make preparations for our Freshman Frolic, held on May 27. Although this ended our Freshman year, the theme was appropriately, "Only The Beginning."

Sophomore year began with earnest endeavors for Homecoming and sporsoring a Dues Dance in November. We then, to the delight of our senior citizens, made a repeat Christmas performance at the Benjamen Church Manor. The months sped by until spring and our Sophomore Hop was upon us. The sentiments of the past months were summarized that night when the band played our theme song, "Precious and Few."

We entered our Junior year with refreshed imaginations and eager readiness. Homecoming festivities had a touch of Women's Lib when the Junior girls raised their Powder Puff Football record to 2-0, the result of a major victory over the undefeated Seniors. Stirring vibrations were renewed five nights later when golden rays bounced off the cafeteria walls at our Ring Dance. We felt the impact of time speeding past us for the first time that evening. We sponsored our first Pot Luck Supper on December 18, then begn planning for our Junior Prom, the high point of the year. On Saturday, May 4, Juniors floated through the Viking Inn, enacting our theme song, "Photographs and Memories." An added highlight to the year was our successful attempt to recreate the sounds of Broadway with the "Music Box Revue", held on June 7 and 8.

The smiles we gave to one another in September were anxious ones, for we knew our Senior year held unexpected adventures and serious challenges. October exploded with a triumphant Homecoming. The Senior girls remained unsurpassed in Powder Puff and the class received first place in float and overall competition. Lead by President John R. Partington, Jr., Maureen Donovan, Vice President, Barbara Linn, Secretary, Grace Remington, Treasurer, and the Senior Priviledge Board we began our successful battle for Senior rights. The Open Campus Policy was the result of a continuous effort to remain united as a class. Preparations for future plans occupied our thoughts and soon Seniors began their last Christmas vacation at the annual Christmas Dance. Rehearsals for our Senior Play "Once Upon A Mattress" broke open the New Year and progressed until April 25, opening night. Spring released new sensations never to be experienced again. Less than two months remained on the school calendar. These next days would be the cause for fondest memories: the senior reception, banquet, class night and finally, graduation.

And now we leave, still as explorers with unknown goals, but with an added confidence which can be attributed to the five years we shared as one. To the entering Eighth grade the corridors remain dark and silent, but to us, they are classrooms with the brightest, fondest memories, and corridors that echo with our resounding joys. We came. We learned. We laughed. We left a part of ourselves to be remembered . . . when we were gone.

Thoughtful Thoughts Of Things And Friends Not To Be Forgotten

Coming back out of the darkening wood,
I see the footprints I had made as I began
my journey imprinted in the snow.
Each one is somewhat different from the next,
and each one brings back
different memories.
I am glad that I made
these footprints,
for they are evidence
that I passed this way.
And though I be gone
my footprints

will always remain

Rod McKuer

Let us remember the excitement of a united spirit, the challenge of knowledge,
the warmth of a smile,
and the endless march
of Time itself.
Let us remember what we have learned and let us learn from what we remember.

We push forward
individually
To prepare for the time when the future
becomes the past,
the dream becomes a reality,
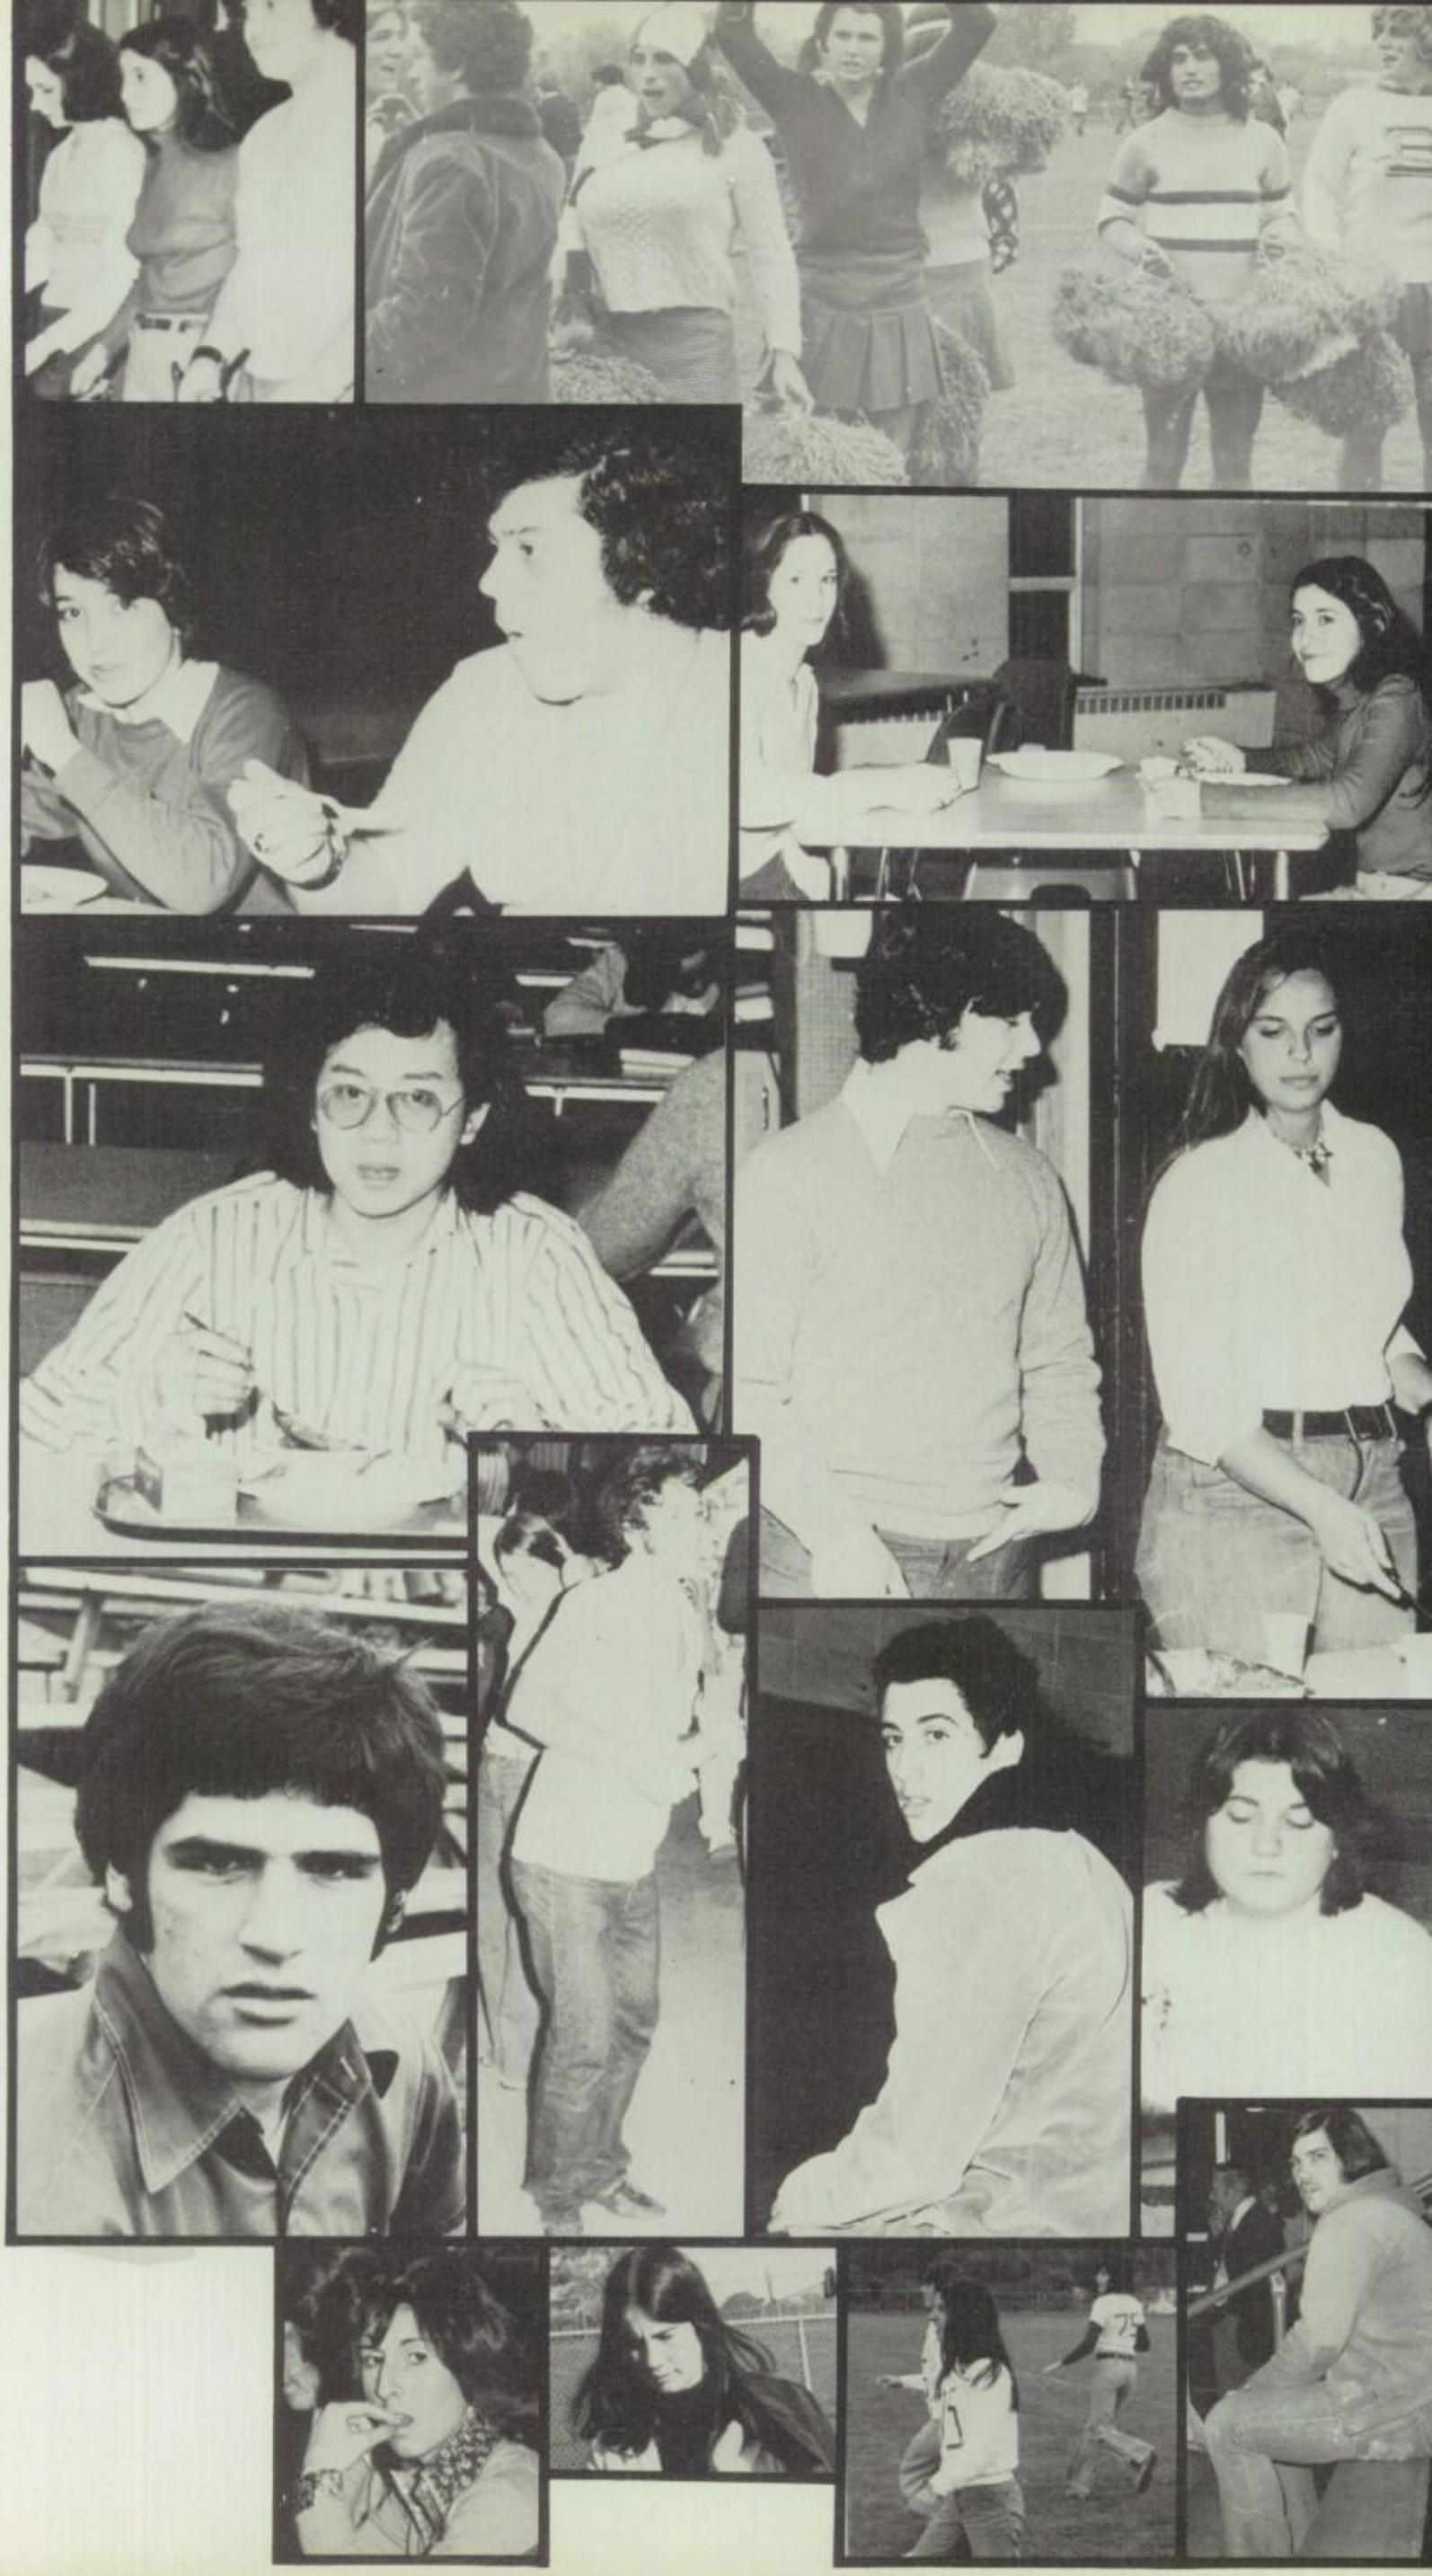
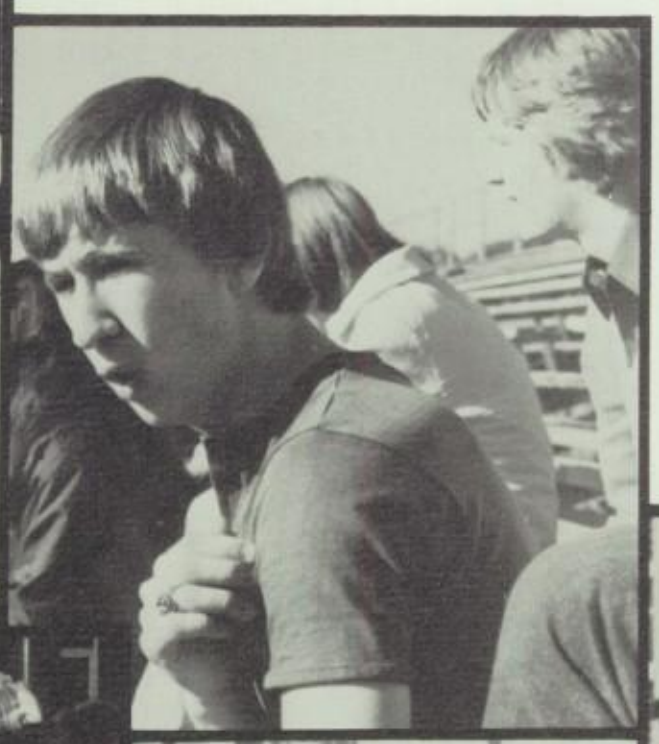
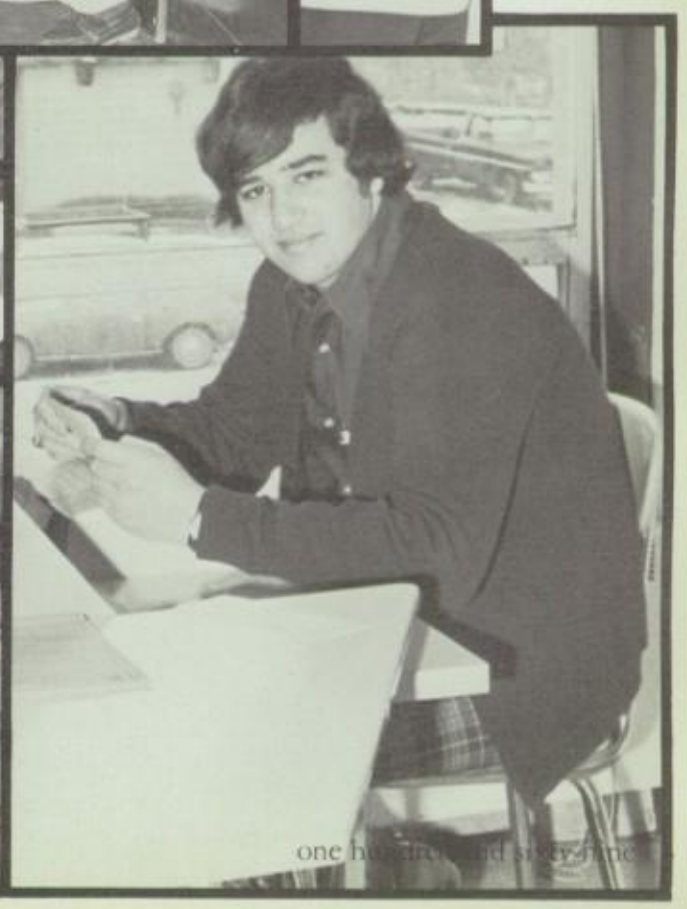
A life imagined
becomes a life lived.







In years to come, as I look back, how will I remember? Will I remember the year as it was or as I had wished it to be? Will I remember only the happy times or the disappointments we also shared?

Did I express myself to the fullest extent and yet keep an open mind which welcomed the thoughts and opinions of others?

Did I utilize the days and the months to form lasting friendships with others? Or will the experiences we shared be lost forever with the closing of a book, never to be of benefit to me in a more serious later life?

Will I recall the good times of shared laughter that came from such simple things as having a coke, or enjoying the fresh Spring sun? Was I alone or was I a real part of them? What will I remember?

In Memory

Sometimes, Time is too short for those people who use their hours wisely to help others along in life.

Mrs. Patricia Leveille was a teacher, a wife, a friend. She was loved not only by her family but by those who knew her or merely passed her in the halls at school.

During her short stay with us at Bristol High School, Mrs. Leveille has touched a great many of our lives with her carefree attitude, happy ways, and pleasant smile. The students, faculty, and administration of this school will always remember her for all her contributions to the student body. Since we all did not find time to say thank you to her for sharing a part of herself with us, we the Yearbook Staff, on behalf of Bristol High School, would like to dedicate this page as a lasting memory of

There are places I remember
All my life
Though some have changed;
Some forever, not for better
Some have gone and some remain

All these places have their moments with lover and friends
I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I loved them all

We have been friends and rivals. We have looked up to you, and we have resented you. Now the time has come when we must say good-bye.

When we look back over the past years, we remember the sporting events. On the playing fields and in the stands we cheered and fought together. Whether it was defeat or victory we were together all the way. Good luck Seniors.

Acknowledgements

The 1975 Green and White staff wishes to express their sincere gratitude to the following people. Without them, the production of this book would have been an impossibility.

(clockwise from top) . . . Mr. Domenic Raiola . . . he gave us, through his constant trust in our ideas, a chance to grow more confident in ourselves and more respectful of the opinions of others . . . Mr. Frank Campagna and Mr. Anthony P. Iasiello . . . their unfailing support and genuine interest in the production of this book was a reflection of their concern for the well-being of the students . . . the secretaries . . . for all the announcements, and searching through the mail bags for incoming photographs . . . Mr. Santa Matrone . . . for the constant use of his office, telephone, and smile . . . who's this masked stranger? . . . Mr. Michael Walsh . . . for all his help in photography and subscriptions and his willingness to be of service for the success of the book . . . Miss Janice Sylvia . . . for all the trouble we gave her with our uncontrollable budget . . . Mrs. Partington . . . for the use of her schedules and class lists on a second's notice . . . Mrs. Byrnes . . . for running off so many copies of so many papers . . . a special thank you is extended to the Bruno's and Lima's for the use of their homes and refrigerators.

Life is made up of small comings and goings.
And for everything we take with us,
there is something that we leave behind . . .

good-bye . . .
